Check out the latest guest chef at the Double Red Duke in Oxfordshire

Also helping to ensure the Cotswold food scene keeps on improving is the Double Red Duke, which runs a guest-chef series – previous talents calling in to man the kitchens have included Thomasina Miers, Richard Corrigan and Ben Tish. The next round of pop-up evenings will take place on 6 September, 11 October and 19 November, and plans for next year's takeovers are already afoot.

The 16th-century coaching inn in the Oxfordshire hamlet of Cranfield has all the beams, creaky floors and narrow staircases you'd hope for, but more modern touches include copper bath tubs, patterned headboards and colourful wallpaper.
